XXXVth Congress—First Session.
WASHINGTON, May 5.—House—Mr. Tracy has failed to report a resolution providing for a new session of the Legislature of the State of Washington. He stated that the sum was $17,000 remaining of the amount appropriated for the inauguration ceremonies, and that it was necessary to employ watchmen till the Legislature arrangements for protecting the ground.

Mr. Crawford objected—You will have to pay till this money is spent. [Laughter.] There is no time to be lost in the interest which would interfere with the state, or do it harm.

Mr. Ellist wished to introduce a resolution requesting the President to communicate to the House the information recently received respecting the Chinese.

Mr. Jones objected.

The House resolved the consideration of private bills.

One of the bills passed was one authorizing Captains Hadson and Sands to receive a sum box and medal from the British Government, as a testimonial for their services in laying the Atlantic cable.

The other bill was one authorizing the Committee of the Whole, and Mr. Trimble briefly advocated the protection of domestic manufactures. No other member desiring to speak, the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

Methodist General Conference—Fifth Day.

BETHLEHEM, May 5.—The General Conference met at the usual hours. Bishop Morris in the chair. The list of Conferences was called for, the presentation of petitions, &c. The burden of the prayers to-day, as here, was for a change of the rule on slavery.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Hill, of Erie, for the appointment of the Bishop of Connecticut, to try the appeal of the Abolitionists of that state, which was referred by Mr. Coombs, of Minnesota, to the general conference, by delegations, applying to committees on appeals in order to have a full hearing of the case.

Mr. Coombs meant no reference to the Bishop of Connecticut, but to avail the possibility of any such imputation being cast upon them by the enemies of the church, as had been in cases heretofore.

An amendment was adopted, which would relieve the Bishop very materially, and he hoped a general court of appeals would be appointed to try all cases.

The Bishop had been charged with corruption, and had been excommunicated by the Bishop of North Carolina, who had charged that the Bishop exercised an undue influence over the deliberations of the Conference.

Bishop Simpson rose to a question of privilege as a member of the church. He was somewhat sensitive of his official character.

The Bishop had a short while ago been accused of having sold his office to the Abolitionists, but he had been exonerated.

An amendment was finally adopted that the Committee on Episcopacy appoint the committee on appeals, subject to the ratification of the Conference.

Bishop Simpson rose to a question of privilege as a member of the church. He was somewhat sensitive of his official character.

If such a charge had really been made, he hoped it might be investigated.

Mr. Coombs had no recollection of saying the Bishop had been charged with corruption, and had been excommunicated by the Bishop of North Carolina, who had charged that the Bishop exercised an undue influence over the deliberations of the Conference.

The Bishop had been excommunicated for a number of the proceedings of the conference.

He was asked if he had any objection.
